Raising Sidewalk Leading to Court House on North

The sidewalk on the north side of the court house is being raised four inches in order to get it out of the mud. This walk has been submerged under water and mud whenever rain has fallen during past years. Raising the walk four inches will get the concrete above the water line and provide for drainage.

The walk was taken out in pieces and replaced with very little damage to the sections of concrete.

With the postoffice being moved to the northwest corner of the square during the coming month, traffic on this walk will likely be increased considerable, and the walk was fixed to provide for this service to the public.

Commissioner G. B. Heath is supervising the work.

Large Attendance Is Expected; Demonstration Classes Will Open on Same Day

From all indications, the summer session of W. T. will be largely attended at its opening next Wednesday, June 2nd.

The Art School starts at the Palo Duro State Park next week and will attract a large number of students, according to Miss Isabell Robinson.

Canyon Reported 29 Services Businesses To Government

Special to Canyon News:

Washington, D. C., May 26.—Canyon service establishments took in $58,000 which constituted total receipts for such establishments in Randall county, in 1935, according to the census bureau.

Canyon had 29 service establishments, the census bureau reported.

In this group are included barber shops, beauty parlors, all kinds of repair shops, undertakes, hand laundries, and all other firms or individuals giving personal or business services, as well as so-called "custom industries," small establishments dealing in made-to-order goods.

Canyon's service establishments gave employment to 26 persons in addition to 25 "working proprietors," and had total payroll of $12,000 for the year.

The entire state of Texas had 22,776 service establishments, which took in $72,318,000 during the year, gave employment to 30,678 persons in addition to 23,390 "working proprietors" and had total payrolls of $21,973,000.

Clean Up Campaign Extends To Next Week

Wagons To Start Clearing Alleys on Monday; Citizens Asked to Cooperate

Rain has interfered with the Clean Up Campaign scheduled for this week.

Mayor C. R. Burrow announced yesterday that the campaign will be continued until next week, and urges that all citizens co-operate in getting the town in good condition for the opening of summer school next week.

The wagons will not start today as scheduled, but will be started Monday morning if the weather remains fair.

All citizens are urged to burn all trash and waste paper that will burn.

All rubbish that will not burn should be piled in the alleys ready for the wagons to gather next Monday morning.

Cans, bottles and other rubbish should be placed in sacks or boxes so that the wagons can clean the alleys rapidly.

All who have been appointed to serve on committees are asked to go over their territory immediately and see to it that the campaign is being made effective in the various parts of town.

All old machinery and automobiles which stand in the alleys or on the vacant lots will be hauled to the city dump grounds.

The rains will start the weeds growing rapidly and the city officials are very anxious that the streets and alleys and vacant lots be cleaned up so that the mowing machine may cut the weeds.

Miss Sally Mary Campbell has returned to Canyon for the summer since the close of school at Dalhart, where she taught last year.

Social Security Is Upheld by U. S. Supreme Court

All doubt regarding the future of Social Security was removed Monday when the Supreme Court of the United States declared this act to be constitutional. This act effects practically every line of business and practically every employee in the nation, setting up old age pensions and employment insurance.

Canyon will be visited next Tuesday by an authority on Social Security who will explain the details to those who have questions regarding its operation. Jacob G. James of the Dallas office will spend the day here and invites all interested to interview him regarding the operation of the act.

Under this new law, employees deposit with the government 1% of their earnings and the employer added a like amount to build up a reserve for insurance of employment and old age.

All workers must have cards, which may be secured through the local postoffices until June 30th, but after that date applications will be filed through the Dallas office.

Since Social Security will become one of the largest functions of government within a few years, employees and employers alike are being urged to become thoroughly acquainted with its details.

Conservation Plea Is Carried to Federal Government

Meeting of Delegates From Five States at Amarillo Agree on Future Plan

More than 400 delegates from five states met in Amarillo Thursday to complete plans for water conservation on the Plains. W. A. Warren is vice president of the organization and was the official delegate from Randall county. Others attending from here were: County Judge Burney Slack, G. B. Heath, W. E. Bennett, D. S. Hill, and Dr. C. E. Donnell.

Resolutions were adopted asking that the federal government set up a separate agency for the dust bowl and that all work now being done in this section be correlated under the direction of the new agency.

A large percent of those attending the meeting Thursday were farmers.

Building of lakes and dams to supplement the contour work was endorsed by the meeting.

Legislature In Error Shorts W. T. of $20,000.00

Support of Museum, New Well and Repairs Is Omitted After Agreement Is Reached

W. T. lost between $20,000 and and $25,000 on the annual appropriations bill through some error which occurred after the free conference agreed on the bill Friday night.

Dr. J. A. Hill was greatly shocked Tuesday when he found that his total appropriation was considerably less than the amount agreed upon between the House and the Senate.

Items which were omitted from the bill as it went to the Governor were $10,000 for an additional well and equipment, $4,000 annually for the support of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, and $4,000 for repairs.

Dr. Hill has conferred with Austin and with Senator Clint Small, but no one knows how the error was made.

It is possible that since the omission was an oversight that the Governor will allow the legislature to pass these items during the special session which opens today.

The item for the Museum support was approved by both the House and the Senate after W. H. Patrick of Clarendon, Col. R. P. Smythe of Plainview and L. F. Sheffy made an appeal for the funds.

In the appropriation bill, salaries for educational institutions were restored to an average of 97% of the amount that prevailed in pre-depression days.

Governor Allred has indicated that he will veto all items of appropriation which he feels are not

2.40 Inches Of Rain Received Since Sunday

Wheat Is Greatly Benefitted By Moisture; Total For May Is Under 1936 Fall

PLANT ROW CROP

Total of Wheat Crop Has Chance To Equal 1936 If Conditions Continue Favorably

All sections of the Panhandle received rain during the past week. The rainfall in Canyon amounted to 1.75 inches Sunday and Monday. Some sections of the county did not receive quite so much, while the moisture measured 3 inches in parts of the county. Rain started falling around midnight last night with .65 falling during the night.

Rain for the month of May now measures 3.54 inches. For the year the moisture amounts to 5.26.

This is short the amount of moisture which fell during the month of May last year. The measurement last May was 5.62 inches, and the total for 1936 up to the end of May was 7.05 inches.

The measurement of the rain was as follows: .60 of an inch Sunday night; .60 Monday morning; .20 Monday afternoon; .35 Monday night; .65 Wednesday night.

All citizens of Northwest Texas are highly elated over the very fine rains. Considerable speculation centers around the prospects for wheat. Comparisons with the crop of last year are being made. Some farmers state that their wheat is better than it was at that time last year, but it seems that a majority of the farmers believe that their chances are not so good.

Those who have kept in close touch with the wheat all over the country believe that it is possible to make as much wheat this year as was made last year if conditions continue favorably. Several elements enter into this speculation, however. The acreage is larger this year than last; not so much wheat was blown out as was the case last year; while no section of the county will have a bumper crop as was made in the west part of the county last year, more farmers will have some wheat than was the case last year.

The element of weather enters into this speculation. If there is plenty of rain, the chance for a good yield will be better. Whether the weeds will choak out the low stalks is another element of speculation.

The rains will allow the planting of row crops, and this crop is one that is very greatly needed on the Plains.

PANHANDLE MEMBER PRESS ASSOCIATION

An amendment to the constitution which will be voted upon in August will have considerable influence upon school finances in the various school districts of the state. This amendment is H. J. R. No. 23. Turn to it in this issue of The News and read carefully. It provides that "no property of any kind shall be assesed for ad valorem taxes at a greater value than its fair cash market value." This is going to force the readjustment of tax values in independent school districts which are heavily bonded and in which the sale of distress property has established the "fair cash market value." Of course it is just that property shall not be assessed for more than it is worth. But there is much property in Canyon which is being assessed for much more than the present owners actually paid for it. It is true that most of this property sold at distress prices, but nevertheless these prices have set the prevailing property prices in the school district. If a residence that formerly sold or traded at $4,000 is sold on the market at $2,000, can the board of equalization say that the fair cash market value should be more than $2,000? Practically every independent school district in the state is affected just like the Canyon Independent School District. If this amendment is adopted, and no doubt it will be since property owners are looking for reduction in taxes, the independent schools of the state stand to lose thousands of dollars, and will be forced into a program of retrenchment.

Henry Ford is called by various complimentary as well as uncomplimentary terms by his friends and enemies. He has issued a pamphlet giving his views on labor. "We think our men ought to concider whether it is necessary for them to pay some outsider every month for the privilege of working at Ford's. Or, whether any union can do more for them than we are doing. If the union leaders think they can manage an automobile factory better than we can, and pay better wages under better working conditions than we can, why don't they build a factory of their own and show us up? They have the capital—they have all the money they need and a lot more. The country is big; they have the men; and think of all the union customers they would have! If the union leaders are sincere, they should go into business themselves. If they thought out a better way to manage business, let them demonstrate what it is. If they can't do that, why do they pretend they can?" All of which raises pertinent questions as to the methods being used by John Lewis and his gang of unprincipled strike leaders. Without doubt, Lewis is the worst enemy that labor and capital has in the United States today, and a leader who must be reckoned with under strict federal law.

A special session of the legislature starts today. Governor Allred has called the session for the one purpose of repealing the horse race gambling law. When this is accomplished, the question of taxation will no doubt be submitted by the Governor. The state will need more money to pay the increased cost of government, and the only way to get this money is to increase present taxes or tap new sources. Since new sources, aside from a sales tax, are not adequate to pay the present deficit and take care of the increased operation costs, it is natural that present taxes must be increased. The tax problem is always a most serious one, especially with the demand of the people that the government shall multiply its function faster than the people are able to supply money to support these functions. When it was rumored last week that Governor Allred would resign to accept the appointment of federal judge, Lieut. Governor Woodul was the first to protest. Woodul wishes to make the race for attorney general next year, and does not wish to have the big problem of devising a tax plan that will pay off the deficit which has been mounting under past administrations.

At the last moment the legislature passed a constitutional amendment to the voters seeking to repeal the salary bill for county and district officers and return to the fee system. The amendment was passed to the people when Governor Allred urged return to the fee system which was repealed only three years ago Why all this rush? Why has not the salary law been given a chance? Certainly the evils of the fee system have not been overcome by trying the salary system for only three years. The Governor proposed the change at the last minute the amendment could be published according to law. At that, the Secretary of State was forced to transmit the amendment by wire to 254 county newspapers in the state in order to have it published last week. It looks like the people of Texas have been very hasty about changing the constitution, if the fee system is to be restored so quickly, even before the salary system has been completely worked out.

The Republican party shows more sense than the Democrats are willing to accord them. If you have noted the criticism of the President's court bill, you find that most of the blasts directed at the bill come from the Democrats. The Republicans are sitting quietly on the sideline allowing the Democratic leaders to smash at the President with all their might and main. Chairman John Hamilton has taken to the air together with congressional leaders to keep before the people the fact that the Republican party is very much alive and on the job. Just enough is said to let the people know that G. O. P. is very much against "packing" the court, but the verbal blasts against the bill are left to the former staunch supporters of the President. 1940 will soon be here. The Republicans hope for a united party by that time, while the Democratic party will be split in two if the present procedure continues.

Monday started the clean up campaign in Canyon. Rain poured down all day, prohibiting any kind of work. The rain was needed more than was the clean up work. But now that rain has fallen, weeds will start growing very rapidly. Every citizen should observe the rules of the campaign. Pile and burn everything that will possibly burn. Pile the rubbish that will not burn conveniently in the alleys so that the city wagons may gather up and haul to the dump grounds the tin cans, glass, and other rubbish which will not burn. The fact that it rained does not diminish the needs of a clean up campaign, but will greatly increase the necessity of cleaning alleys and vacant lots so that weeds may be cut a little later with the mowing machine.

Thirty-one states in the union have sterilization laws for criminals and insane persons. Texas is one of the 17 states which has consistently refused to pass such a law. Texans seem to prefer to keep on paying millions of taxes annually to care for the rapidly increasing number of dependents which are offspring from these classes. Sterilization is the only means of stopping this terrific drain upon the finances of the state. A poll by the Institute of Public Opinion reveals that 84% of the people of the nation favor this method of reducing burden of incurable dependents.

"TURN THE OTHER JAW"

Paul Dodge got down to brass tacks the other day and talked to the people of Tucumcari in his Daily News. His lay sermon applies to Canyon, and is therefore printed below.

The Ole Mat feels in a humor to preach a sermon today, the subject of which is to be:

"If they smack you on one jaw, turn the other for another smack on the other jaw."

I haven't preached a sermon for so long on doing your trading at home I am going to give you one along that line.

If self-preservation is the first law of nature then the second one should be the preservation of home-town institutions.

Take care of yourself first, and then take care of the things that belong to you.

Your churches, your schools, every local institution of any kind, has a direct bearing on the welfare of the entire community.

You go to church here—or ought to—and send your children to school here, you make your money here, then here is the place to spend it, that these institutions, your institutions, may benefit.

Residents of some other city or town are not going to send their money here to build up and maintain your institutions—then why send your money to other cities or towns to maintain theirs?

You would fight to protect your own life. Why not fight to protect the life of the institutions that serve you?

The most effective and sensible way to conduct such a fight is to spen your money right here where you make it.

Talk to the local merchants.

Show them the advantage of stocking the thing you and the people here will need—and use!

Then here's something else, and yet again to remember.

When you cross the River Styx, if there are any flowers at your funeral they won't come from the out-of-town concern you buy from.

The mourners at your funeral will not be the people living in other towns, they will be the people who know you, who associated with you right here in Tucumcari.

When kind words are said of you, after your departure, they will be said by the people who know you here, not by the fellows living in other towns.

Your grave isn't going to be cared for, kept green, you aren't going to be remembered by the fellows living in other towns; all this will come from your friends here.

* * *

Maybe you can save a little money by buying out of town, but you can't take what you save across the river with you.

Tucumcari money spent in Tucumcari, Quay county money spent in Quay county, is spent with your friends, with men who appreciate you, who know you, who will tell of your good qualities and forget your bad ones, in the hereafter.

And last of all, but not least, by any manner of means, remember it is the Tucumcari editor who will have the task thrust upon him of writing your funeral, of telling what a great man you were, of your loyalty to your family, city, county, state and nation.

"If they smack you on one jaw, turn the other for a smack on the other jaw."

Ninety percent of all statements received from local merchants the first of the month were written on statements which were not printed in Tucumcari.

Annual Spring Art Exhibit Now Hung In Pioneer Hall

Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the W. T. Department of Art, yesterday announced the opening of the department's annual spring Art Exhibit in the Mary E. Hudspeth gallery at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum, displaying work done by student artists during the spring semester.

All work by advanced students is on exhibition at the museum, the exhibit featuring advanced creative compositions, mural paintings and etchings, and some fine examples of the type of etching known as wood cuts and linoleum blocks.

Freshman and sophomore work is on exhibition in the Administration building in the west hall on the second floor and in Room 206.

The freshman exhibit consists largely of drawing and design, both in mechanical perspective and freehand; while the sophomore work has been in the field of creative design, abstract design, and lettering work, Miss Robinson said.

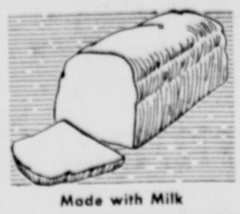
Tech Matadors Defeat Buffs 16-5 In Tennis Meet

Ending their current tennis season, the West Texas netters succumbed to the Texas Tech Matadors by a team count of 16-5 on the Lubbock courts Saturday. The victory gave the Raiders' three triumphs in the five meetings this year.

The only West Texas match was pulled out by Glyndon Riley in the first singles match at the hands of Harry Jordan, Tech, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3. Curry lost to Chapman in straight sets, 6-1, 7-5. Hays, W. T., was defeated by the consistent Bozeman, 3-6, 7-5, and 6-3. Smalley was helpless against the southpaw slashes of Fancher Upshaw, Tech, 6-1, 6-2.

Riley and Smalley lost their second match of the year to the Border Conference champions, Jordan and Bozeman, 6-4, 6-2. Hays and Curry, W. T., wound up the meet by dropping an extended match to Chapman and McKay, 6-3, 4-6, and 6-1.

100,000,000 pounds of milk baked into bread



Made with Milk

Bakers used more than 100 million pounds of milk powder to bake their 1936 bread—four times as much as they used 10 years ago. Milk improves quality and adds food value to bread. But technical difficulties for many years limited its use in commercial baking.

To make it easy to use more milk in baking, Borden research developed a milk powder which is pre-tested under actual baking conditions, so that it doesn't fail. Borden's "bakery-testing" has greatly enlarged the use of all milk in baking, by giving bakers faith in the quality of powdered milk.

New and greater uses for milk are the aim of Borden research. Through research and merchandising, farm income from milk is sustained.

Following a short business meeting, Mrs. John Hunter conducted a group of interesting contests.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Mile after mile on the North Plains the ground is bare of any vegetation, the heat and dust sears the eyes as it dances crazily over the surface. Our land will be the same if we fail to heed the plain warning that may be easily read on every hand and it's squarely up to our citizens to prevent such a catastrophe happening. It can be prevented by following a program of soil conservation as outlined by our County Agent and by the use of proper tools. The time to keep soil from blowing next winter is now, don't put off getting into action, it may be too late. Lets all make a personal effort in this direction. Helping solve the problem of the right implements to use is something we can contribute.

WARWICK'S

Nationally Famous Artist To Teach Art at Palo Duro

Mrs. Garfield To Give Figure Drawing Methods

A nationally known artist and recognized authority on the teaching of art will be on the staff of the Palo Duro School of Art which will open June 2. She is Frances O'Brien Garfield, author of "You Can Draw." Her services were secured by W. T. through Georgia O'Keeffe of New York City who considers Mrs. Garfield an important figure in present day American art circles.

Mrs. Garfield will give special instruction in figure drawing, helping the students of the Palo Duro School to learn a method which she has tested with both adults and children over a period of ten years. She calls hers "the scribble method" which she says enables the pupil to see his drawing as a whole from the time he begins it.

Besides the valuable instruction she will give, Mrs. Garfield promises to be one of the most interesting personalities on the West Texas State Teachers College campus or at the art colony which is held in the State Park twelve miles east of Canyon. She is 31 years old; her education has been broad so that she is interested in many things besides art. She writes, "I haven't much time for so-called social life, because of the many things I do. I am interested in music and books, my husband and our seventy-acre farm, our cats and the hundreds of people we meet each year."

Of her professional life, Mrs. Garfield says, "I wanted to be a portrait painter, but I didn't get enough commissions to keep on. I was the oldest of five children. I took up commercial work which I did not like. Then I met Georgia O'Keeffe, whom I consider the foremost woman painter in America. It was she who steered me into the teaching field, for which I am very grateful."

Miss Isabel Robinson, director of the Palo Duro School of Art said yesterday, "Securing the services of Mrs. Garfield certainly makes me very happy. I think she will be a wonderful help and inspiration to the students of the colony. About fifty Texas art students will receive instruction from her."

That's me—Your Mileage Merchant

I'LL OIL-PLATE YOUR ENGINE

Nobody but a Conoco Mileage Merchant like me can Oil-Plate your engine, because nobody else can change you to Conoco Germ Processed oil. There's a patent on it. The Germ Process is not like all the processes that "take away" from an oil—sort of like making skim milk. Instead of that, after the oil is refined in every right way, something altogether extra is put in Germ Processed oil. This is a great discovery, because then a genuine plating of oil is able to form in your engine. If you would imagine a slippy skin of oil really grown to every working surface—and not just floating around—that's a picture of Oil-Plating. A plating can't flow down while your car is parked, so you won't punish your Oil-Plated engine doing all the stopping and starting you please. Or if you're hitting a pace all day—maybe even pulling a trailer up the mountains—it does not make Oil-Plating rub away. That's letting you out of all the worst wear, at the same time that your Conoco Germ Processed oil is saving you quart after quart.

Swimming Pool Near Completion; Ready June 10

One of the most unique out-of-doors swimming pools to be constructed on a Texas college campus will be completed at W. T. June 10, Coach Al Baggett announced last week.

The construction under the direction of C. S. Lambie, contractor, is finished in native stone and will be completed at a total cost of $40,000.

When completed, the pool will be open to all college students and days will be designated for those outside the school who wish to use it. All activities in relation to the pool will be rigidly regulated. Ample provision is being made for those who wish to view the activities as spectators.

Coach Baggett's plans now are to use the pool for the coaching school to be held in the early part of June.

Firestone TIRES GIVE YOU GREATER PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING AND BLOWOUTS

YOU will know the minute you see this tire why car owners everywhere call it the greatest tire ever made to sell at these low prices. The deeper, wider, flatter non-skid tread made of tough, long wearing rubber will give you protection against dangerous skidding.

But tires cannot be judged on tread alone. Under the tread of Firestone Standard Tires are two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords. This Firestone patented construction feature binds the tread and cord body into one inseparable unit. Every cotton fiber in every cord in every ply is saturated and coated with pure liquid rubber which counteracts the internal friction and heat that ordinarily destroy tire life. This Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping gives greater protection against blowouts and is used only in Firestone Tires.

Come in, join the Firestone Save A Life Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires.

DO YOU KNOW

THAT last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children?

THAT a million more were injured?

THAT more than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to unsafe tires?

Planning Board Is Needed In Canyon Says S. H. Condron

Prof. S. H. Condron spoke at the Rotary luncheon Tuesday, talking about conditions in Canyon. W. A. Warren, chairman of the Club Service Committee, introduced the speaker. Mr. Warren stated that the competition between the small towns and large towns had greatly hurt the small towns. This competition would increase in the years that are to come unless the leaders of the small communities get together and make plans for the future.

Mr. Condron stated that just recently he experienced the fate of a small town which was declining when he sold a house for $1,500 which had cost him $7,500.

Canyon is unique in its location. Between two hills, it missed much of the wind experienced on the plains. Streams on either side offer outdoor advantages.

American life has changed greatly. 150 years ago only 3% of the people lived in town; the census of 1930 showed that 60% of the people live in town. From a community standpoint most of those who move from the country to town take their ideals with them.

Canyon will always be a residential town, rather than industrial town. The schools, churches, recreational opportunities, paved highways all contribute to making Canyon a good place. Some people believe that Canyon could be improved by getting more students in the College. Mr. Condron believes that more students will come when the town becomes more attractive and more homes are built. He drove over Canyon Monday and Tuesday and found only 39 lawns which he could class as attractive.

Cheaper water rates would do much to improve the looks of Canyon. Maintaining the present rate for 3,000 gallons, and then making low rates for additional water used would induce people to use more water. Real estate prices are governed by the attractiveness of homes.

Instead of having only one clean up campaign per year, every citizen should be diligent in keeping the town clean 52 weeks in the year. "We owe it to the town to keep Canyon clean," stated the speaker.

Paint is greatly needed in Canyon, and would add much to the attractiveness of the community.

Canyon should be 100% better than other towns its size, but it is not is the opinion of Mr. Condron. Canyon has a record on paved streets. The finances of the town and county are in fine shape. Canyon should be more "than just holding its own."

The appointment of a planning board or advisory council with representatives from all civic clubs to assist the city commission would be a good thing for Canyon, build along the the same lines of the old town meeting of colonial days.

Dr. Joe Hill paid a tribute to Horace M. Russell of Amarillo, one of the staunch friends of Canyon. Mr. Russell was president of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society and president of the Amarillo Rotary Club.

W. A. Warren announced that the school band was selling tickets to the Pan-American Exposition which opens in Dallas June 12. $3.60 books of tickets are offered at $2.20, and the sale continues to July 1st.

Visitors present were: Arthur Osgood of Amarillo, J. A. Carruth of Olton, S. H. Condron of Canyon.
